Welcome to the Rotary Club of New Port Richey

July 20, 2011

Today we welcome Rotary District Governor Carl Treleaven.

Last Week

Our program last week was Jack Mariano speaking about the Sunwest Harbortowne Development in Hudson. The 1,000 acre project would include 2,500 homes, 250,000 square feet of retail space, a 500 room resort and parking for 250 boat trailers. They are looking into offering cable water skiing in part of the 60 acre fresh water lake, with beaches completely surrounding the lake. They want to change the image of the way people look at Hudson.

Jack said that currently they are waiting for an Army Corps Permit, hoping it's coming in a few weeks, to dredge the canal. Currently there is $12 million in tourist tax money. They are hoping that they will receive some of that. Also, they have $2.5 million from a settlement. Jack said that once they get the permit, they can be up and running in nine months, including the cable water skiing. The lake and land is located north of Sea Pines on Old Dixie to Aripeka.

We would like to thank Jack for an interesting and informative program. A book will be donated, in his name, to the Richey Elementary Library.

Blue Badge

It was nice to see Cindy Ewald receive her blue badge. She has been a wonderful Rotarian (Rookie of the Year as well) and is a great asset to our club. Congratulations, Cindy!

Mike Schwab presented a $500 check to Evie Parks for the HPH Hospice Legacy Program.

Club Social

David Shelton has put together a fun club social for us and our significant other (no children please, must be 21). On August 5th, a Friday night, the Rays will be playing against Oakland. For just $40 (your account will be billed) you get bus fare to and from the Spartan Manor with refreshments included, a ticket to the game, a Rays hat and a food voucher. We will be meeting at the Spartan at 5:30 and the bus is leaving at 5:45. Game time is 7:10. Seating is at the first base line on the bottom level. There are a very limited number of seats available so if you are interested in going, contact David at dshelton@stvdentistry.com. Sounds like a fun evening, hope to see you there!

Thoughts and Prayers for Cami Austin's Dad who will be having surgery.

Face Book

Thanks to Mike Schwab our club has its own face book page. Search for Rotary Club of New Port Richey and friend it. Mike will be posting events that are happening to keep face book fans up to date. Thanks, Mike.

Rotary Rays Day XI

Sunday, August 21, gates open at 11:40 for a game of the Rays against the Seattle Mariners. Seats range from $19 to $45 (includes a Rays hat) and there's free parking for cars with four or more passengers. The Kids get to run the bases postgame and the first 10,000 under 14 there get a free David Price Superhero action Figure. This offer is not available through Tropicana Field box offices, Ticket Outlets or Ticketmaster. For more information contact Gene Beil at kiwimate@msn.com. Proceeds from the tickets sales will benefit the Rotary Foundation. Deadline to purchase tickets is July 21st.

Paid For Standing

The owner of a manufacturing firm decided to make a surprise tour of the factory. Walking through the warehouse he noticed a young man lazily leaning against a packing crate.

The factory owner angrily said, "Just how much are you being paid?"

The young man replied, "A hundred dollars a week."

The owner pulled out his wallet, peeled off five $20 bills and shouted at the young man:

"Here is a week's pay – now get out and don't come back!"

Without a word, the young man stuffed the money into his pocket and left. The warehouse manager, standing nearby, stared in amazement.

"Tell me," the boss asked him, "how long has that guy worked for us?"

"He didn't work here," replied the warehouse manager. "He was just the Fed-Ex guy delivering a package."

Just Your Size

A little boy went to the store with his grandmother and on the way home, he was looking at the things she had purchased.

He found a package of pantyhose and began to sound out the words "Queen Size".

He then turned to his grandmother and exclaimed, "Look Grandma, you wear the same size as our bed!"

For Sale Sign

A real-estate agent was driving around with a new trainee when she spotted a charming little farmhouse with a hand-lettered "For Sale" sign out front.

After briskly introducing herself and her associate to the startled occupant, the agent cruised from room to room, opening closets and cupboards, testing faucets and pointing out where a "new light fixture here and a little paint there" would help. Pleased with her assertiveness, the woman was hopeful that the owner would offer her the listing.

"Ma'am," the man said, "I appreciate the home-improvement tips and all, but I think you read my sign wrong. It says, 'HORSE for sale.' "

The Big Sale

It was the day of the big sale. Rumors of the sale and an advertisement in the local paper were the main reasons for the long line that formed in front of the store by 8:30, the store's opening time.

A small man pushed his way to the front of the line, only to be pushed back amid loud and colorful curses.

On the man's second attempt, he was punched square in the jaw and knocked around a bit, then thrown to the end of the line again.

As he got up the second time, he said to the person at the end of the line:

"That does it! If they hit me one more time, I don't open the store!"
